Wir lassen nicht alles auf uns zu kommen

A photograph of a rural landscape. In the center, a blue sign with a red horizontal band is mounted on two wooden posts. The sign features the word 'DEPONIE' in white capital letters on the red band, with a recycling symbol (three chasing arrows) to its right. Below the red band, there is a small, faint image of a recycling truck. The sign is set in a field of dry, yellowish-brown grass. In the background, there are several large, leafy green trees. To the right, there are tall, thin plants with small, light-colored flowers. The sky is overcast and grey.

DEP NIE

A yellow metal signpost stands in a field of dry grass. The signpost has two vertical poles and a horizontal crossbar. A blue banner is attached to the crossbar, featuring the text 'DEP NIE' in white capital letters. The banner also contains a small graphic of a water drop with a blue and white pattern inside. The background consists of a dense line of green trees under a clear sky.
